RIGHTS OF INDIVIDUALS RECEIVING MENTAL HEALTH AND DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITY
SERVICES IN A STATE-OPERATED CENTER

Patient Name:
Date of Birth:

Individual's Name: _____ Identification Number: _____ Date: 5/3/2017

Following are some of your rights. You have other rights that concern procedures of admission and discharge. These rights do not appear on these pages. However, you DO have a copy of these procedural rights. If you have admitted yourself voluntarily, look on the back of your Voluntary (MH-2) or Administrative (DD-1) application. If you are here involuntarily, look on the back of the Petition for Involuntary/Judicial Admission (MHDD-5), and look at both sides of any court orders you have received or may receive. You have been provided a Notice of Privacy as required by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) which describes your rights related to privacy of your protected health information.

- Retention of Rights As a general rule, you lose none of your rights, benefits, or privileges simply because you are an individual receiving mental health or developmental disability services. For example, you do not lose your right right to vote or attend religious services. However, you should know that individuals admitted to mental health facilities will be disqualified from receiving firearm owners' identification cards, or may lose any such cards possessed prior to admission.

- Humane Care Services You are entitled to adequate and humane care and services in the least restrictive environment and to an individual services plan.

- Communcation Mail/Telephone Calls/Visits You have a right to communicate with other people in private, without obstruction, or censorship by the staff at the facility. This right includes mail, telephone calls, and visits. There are limits to these rights. Communication by these means may be reasonably restricted by the director of the facility, but only to protect you or others from harm, harassment, or intimidation. ALL letters addressed to or from the Governor, members of the General Assembly, Attorney General, judges, State's attorneys, Guardianship and Advocacy or the Agency designated to protect and advocate rights of the developmentally disabled, officers of the Department, or licensed attorneys must be forwarded without examination. No facility shall prevent any attorney representing you or who has been requested to represent you by any relative or family member from visiting you during normal business hours. You may refuse to meet with the attorney.

- Property You are entitled to receive, possess, and use personal property unless it is determined that certain items are harmful to you or others. When you are discharged, all lawful property must be returned to you

- Money You may use your money as you choose, unless you are under age 18 or prohibited from doing so under a court guardianship order.

- Banking You may deposit your money at a bank or place it for safekeeping with the facility. If the facility deposits your money, any interest earned will be yours. Neither this facility nor any of its employees may act as payee to receive any payment or assistance directed to you, including Social Security and pension, annuity, or trust fund payments without your informed consent.

- Labor You must be paid for work you are asked to perform which benefits the facility. NOTE: You may be required to do personal housekeeping chores without being paid.

- Refusing Services If you are over 18 and do not have a guardian, you have the right to refuse services, including medication or electroconvulsive therapy (ECT). If you are over 18 and have a guardian, your guardian can refuse services on your behalf. If you do not want to take medication or ECT and your guardian disagrees, you may have a hearing before a judge, who will decide if you have to take the medication or ETC. If you or your guardian refuse services, you will not be given such services except when necessary to prevent you from causing serious harm to yourself or others or if a judge orders it. If you are under 18, you do not have a right to refuse services.

 SERVICES IN A STATE-OPERATED CENTER

Patient Name:
Date of Birth:

- Restraints Restraints may be used only to protect you from physically harming yourself or others, or as part of a medical or surgical procedure, and only under supervision of a properly qualified professional.
- Emergency Medication The facility must advise you, your guardian or substitute decision-maker, if any, of the following circumstances under which the law permits the use of emergency medication and/or restraint. At the same time, you or your guardian or substitute decision-maker may tell the facility which form of intervention you would prefer if any, if the circumstances should arise. Your preference will be noted in the record and the facility must give consideration to your preference.
- Electro Convulsive Therapy Restraint
- Unusual Services Any unusual, hazardous, or experimental services require your written and informed consent.
- Medical/Dental Services Except in emergencies, no medical or dental services will be provided to you without informed consent.
- Restrictions of Rights of Persons Notified If your rights are restricted, the facility must notify: PERSONS NOTIFIED - your parent or guardian, if you are under age 18; - you and the person of your choice; - the Guardianship and Advocacy Commission if you say you want the Commission to be contacted. If communications were restricted with a specific person, you may have that person notified is you so desire.

A Guardianship and Advocacy Commission is a state agency consisting of three divisions: Legal Advocacy Services, Human Rights Authority and the Office of the State Guardian. The Commission is located at the following addresses:
